CIRCLE SIX WON
FROM BELLEVILLE

Kingston, Sept. 3.—Circle Six had very little trouble Monday disposing of Belleville at the city. The final score of the game was 10 to 3. What proved to be a rather lull game. The Belleville team was late in arriving and it was after four o'clock when the game got under way.

The visitors seemed weak with the win and their fielding was very shoddy, but they were put up trying and King Colligan had his team out of the park.

The score was:

He listened unflinched. "Ah, well; the hell!" he concluded.

"You are a man of no religion," said the man in the black coat; "and then cowardice. Faith! For a man who would not willingly be forced to stand up to a lady even 'in his throat, it is no good so bad." (His lips began to laugh and show the teeth, but the note of it jarred him, and he turned away.)

He saw her now; it seemed to him for the first time, and saw how he had been deceived.

"Sure, now, how was it to guess that—how Colaspah could have been so much of a coward? He is certainly, for he was reckless, as most of us are in sudden penitence, and I have seen him do more than I think you often guess aright."

"Without another word or so more as a good-bye to Peter, blood, I must get of the place."

Peter fetched a sigh.

WEDDING BELLS
WANNAMAKER-SNIDER

A very pleasing and interesting event was the wedding of Miss Mary Margaret Hays, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hays, of Lexington, when their only daughter, Miss Margaret, was united in matrimony to Mr. Henry H. Wadman, of Moira, N. Y., by Rev. J. L. Lane officiating. Promptly in the strain of wedding music, the bride and groom were escorted to the altar by Mr. and Mrs. Hays, and the ceremony of betrothal, consummation and the exchange of vows, was performed by the Rev. J. L. Lane. The bride wore a beautiful white ball and tulle gown, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bride was most graciously escorted to the altar by her father, Mr. J. H. Hays, and the groom was escorted by his father, Mr. H. Wadman. The wedding was a most successful and happy occasion, and the bride and groom were escorted to the altar by their fathers. Kingston To Have Historical Pageant

To Commemorate 251st Anniversary of Frontenac's Landing

Kingston will have an historical pageant to commemorate the first anniversary of the landing of Count Frontenac, the Viceroy of France in 1673. This has been made possible by the vision and enterprise of the president and surpervisor of the Kingston-Industrial Exhibition, the untiring efforts of a committee of citizens, the interest of the military units and the co-operation of a number of Kingstoners, who for the sake of representing to the youth of this county and city, events not only of interest to the people of Kingston, but of importance in the history of Canada, have given much time and energy to the prepar-

The landing of Count Frontenac will take place at Bloodgood Park and on the site of the Fair Grounds.

In 1683 during the struggle between the British and French forces in the new world, the gallant Col. James Oglethorpe was the first to see that Fort Frontenac was reduced to a small garrison of 130 men, the rest of the garrison being drawn off to Kitchener.

When saying he would take the fort which was a valuable strategic position. This he did in a swift night move and the British soldiers who were pulled down and the cross raised banner of Britain floated out. Blood good against the blue of the Canadian flag and the second historical scene of the portrait.

In 1786 Capt. Michael Graess led a party of United Empire Loyalists to settle near the mouth of the St. Lawrence. Other Loyalists, grants of land from George III, many of which are still in the hands of the original owners. The settlement was named after the first intervening accessions decided in the parliament.

The first Major John Graves Simcoe was appointed lieutenant-governor of Upper Canada and took the oath of office by the first Bt. George's church in 1793. He sat at the British War Office, "The Old Admiralty," where he came over with the United Empire Loyalists and founded the church was the second Justice of the Peace. His wife: Peter Russell Esq., Esquire. Hon. Jacques Baby and six other children accompanied whom were Hon. Richard

In 1913 war with the American Republics was declared from the steps of the church and carriers carried the news on horseback to the settlers.

In 1911 Britals called for troops and the men of Kingston were not behind their countrymen in responding to that call.

In 1918 the Armistice was signed and the units returned.

These scenes will be the ones shown at the fair grounds during fair week.

Pasadena, Cal., Sept. 8.—People have been using the Pacific Electric Railway as a medium for returning overdue books to the public library. The future must employ other means of erasing the Librarian's frown.

For months the lost and found department of the railway has been turning to the library books picked up in street cars and buses. The number gradually grew until one man's time was chiefly occupied in returning books from the car barns. When way officials noticed that no one was returning books, they investigated and

Zeilen Stover, In Effort to Win, Takes On Three Professions At Once

Why wait until some bookish stagey thinks you're as good as dead before you go out and make a name for yourself? Zeilen Stover, a singer, who is also her own concert manager, says "I don't want to wait."

When Miss Stover decided upon the "Three Professions" she was confronted by the usual difficulties of a young girl with operatic ambitions.

"Only I had just decided not to let any difficulties keep me back," she says.

She can be her own own good fortune. Zeilen Stover is an ardent proponent of American musical theater and believes the American musical stage owes to its own composers.

"I never allow a program on which I do not include at least one American musical number," she declares. "Some of the best writers and composers in America are working in musical theater. One of which is my very fond hope, to be a musical composer myself. It has the rhythm and the melody of the popular music we all love and it is very new."

"Another of my specialties is native land is that I have never studied abroad. I consider my

EXPECT ARREST OF CRUEL THUG

St. Thomas, Sept. 17.—An arrest is reported soon in connection with the murderous attack made late Saturday night on Samuel and Catharine Palmer, octogenarian brother and sister living northeast of Aylmer. Inspectors Falter Ross and Provincial Constable Felix Devlin are investigating the case and report that they have a strong suspicion. The condition of both old people is considerably improved today, although both are suffering from the terrible shock. They were beaten on the heads and faces by a thug, armed with a bludgeon, who visited them suddenly—home ostensibly to get a favor—to assist in getting his automobile out of a deep gully near the house. The brute left with the contents of the aged woman's purse, a few coins.

Geneva, Sept. 19.—Intimations are that the present assembly of the League of Nations will continue until the first week in October and it is probable that the commission must hold sittings to get through with the agenda. Working on the framing of the proposed constitution and security, and preparing for an international conference for the reduction of armaments has made the assembly one of the most important in the history of the league, and takes attention in preparing the way for the necessary agreement to the proposed constitution.

A HARD BLOW.
 A severe blow at the recently at Premier King was struck last week by one of the strongest labor papers in Canada, "The Canadian Laborer," published at Montreal.

The paper published the statement of the labor leader of the country at Ottawa, who had been in the city for some time. The statement was a criticism of the government's policy towards labor, and was a hard blow to the government.

WONDERFUL PROSPECTS.
 The average man would be amazed to learn that the Canadian labor movement is in a very much bettered state than the political situation of the United States. The primary reason for this is the fact that the Canadian labor movement is a healthy and good, with a clear working condition and reasonable hours of labor.

As a labor leader he knows his government and he knows the United States. He knows that the Canadian labor movement is a healthy and good, with a clear working condition and reasonable hours of labor. He knows that the Canadian labor movement is a healthy and good, with a clear working condition and reasonable hours of labor.

The Canadian Labor World is of the opinion that at least fifty per cent of the present industrial depression can be directly traced to the low tariff policy of the present administration at Ottawa. Our army of laborers in Ontario and Quebec is not asked to accept this situation. It is a fact that the Canadian labor movement is a healthy and good, with a clear working condition and reasonable hours of labor.

A GOOD SIGN.
 Saskatchewan has a debt against the federal government of $1,000,000. This is a good sign, as it indicates that the province is in a position to pay its debts. The province has a population of 1,000,000, and a gross product of $1,000,000,000.

Press Opinions.
 The following are the opinions of the press on the Canadian labor movement:
 "The Canadian Laborer" is a healthy and good, with a clear working condition and reasonable hours of labor.
 "The Canadian Laborer" is a healthy and good, with a clear working condition and reasonable hours of labor.

AVONDA AVER.
 Every body who has the slightest idea of the steel and iron industry knows that the Canadian labor movement is a healthy and good, with a clear working condition and reasonable hours of labor.

JAILED 3 MONTHS FOR MONEY TRICK

Kingsport, Sept. 26.—Three months in jail on the two charges, of stealing a train engine and passing the proceeds was the sentence given to Philip G. C. Hobbie, formerly of the Public Works Department of the Department of Public Works, by Judge J. A. LaPlante yesterday morning. Joseph Hobbie, charged with stealing the engine, was found guilty of the crime and was sentenced to be allowed to go on parole.

On the two charges Hobbie pleaded guilty and Crown Attorney Hobbie, in reviewing the charges, stated that the accused had converted to his own use the engine which he had made out. As in charge of the engine, he placed fictitious names on the way, and when the engine arrived he converted them for himself. He had been a defendant before Hobbie in the department of public works, and had been sentenced to jail for a year. He was released on parole, but was again sentenced to jail for a year.
